PRIVACY POLICY

Introduction

The Committee of the Foreign Shorthair Cat Club of S.A. Inc., is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information which the organization collects, holds, and administers. Personal information is information which directly or indirectly identifies a person.

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to provide a framework for the Foreign Shorthair Cat Club of S.A. Inc. in dealing with privacy considerations.

Policy

The Club collects and administers a range of personal information for the purpose of record keeping. The Club is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information it collects, holds, and administers.

The Club recognizes the essential right of individuals to have their information administered in ways which they would reasonably expect – protected on one hand and made accessible to them on the other. These privacy values are reflected in and supported by our core values and philosophies and reflected in our Privacy Policy, which is compliant with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

The Foreign Shorthair Cat Club of S.A. Inc., is bound by laws which impose specific obligations when it comes to handling information. The Club has adopted the following principles contained as minimum standards in relation to managing personal information.

The Foreign Shorthair Cat Club of S.A. Inc., will

- Collect only information which the Club requires for its primary function;
- Ensure that stakeholders are informed as to why we collect the information and how we administer the information gathered;
- Use and disclose personal information only for our primary functions or a directly related purpose, or for another purpose with the person's consent;
- Store personal information securely, protecting it from unauthorized access; and
- Provide stakeholders with access to their own information, and the right to seek its correction.
